

AWLI's 9th annual Wolf Lake Bi-State

WETLANDS, WIND & WATER FESTIVAL

Planned Activities (tentative, subject to change)

Saturday Morning, May 23

Wm. Powers Conservation Area, Chicago

near boat launch

9 a.m.: Fishing Clinic
(under 16 years)

10 a.m. Kite Flying

10 a.m. Dri-Rite Company's
Wacky Face Painting

Sunday Morning, May 24

at Obelisk marker near

Shelter #2 and

126th Street entrance

6 a.m. Sunrise Worship Service

7 a.m. Breakfast

Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative

Saturday Afternoon, May 23

Hammond's Wolf Lake Park intersection of Sheffield-Calumet Avenues

Noon: Lunch (Environmental Education Ctr, 2405 Calumet Avenue, Hammond)

1 p.m. Cargill poster Contest winners

1 p.m. Canoe/Kayak Paddle Fishing
Clinic, Kite Flying

2 p.m. American Trust & Savings
Wind Surfing & Sailing Demo

3 p.m. Happy Trails Nature Hike

4 p.m. Around the Lake Bike Tour

Saturday Evening

Nike Missile launch site parking lot

5 p.m. Sunset Campfire Song/Story

Saturday & Sunday, May 23-24

Organized by: Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative (AWLI) in collaboration with Hammond Port Authority, Chicago's 10th Ward, Lake County Solid Waste Management District, Lake County Convention and Visitors Bureau, American Legion Illiana Post 220, Polish Legion of American Veterans, Chicago Public Library, East Side United Methodist Church, Annunciata Catholic Church, Healthy Southeast Chicago, Southeast Sportsmen's Club, and Boy Scouts of America

The Association for the Wolf Lake Initiative is a 501c(3) not-for-profit organization and land trust that works across state boundaries to enhance the Wolf Lake watershed.

Sponsors: American Trust & Savings Bank, Cargill Inc, Dri-Rite Company, Hasse Construction Company, Park National Bank, Unilever Inc.

Presentation Sponsors: Whiting Lions Club

Free to Public

For more information, call AWLI at 219 933-7149 or 312 220-0120

